Full job description

Your new company

Our client is a friendly yet ambitious firm in the southern suburbs of Sydney. The firm currently consists of about 20 Solicitors working across a range of practice areas from commercial litigation to property conveyancing. The firm has an outstanding reputation in the market, being highly regarded by their clients for their services they provide in an efficient and professional manner.

Your new role

The commercial litigation team is looking to expand by a junior litigator. The work will involve a range of bankruptcy, debt recovery and insolvency matters, in addition to other commercial disputes. You will work closely with senior lawyers on their files, and benefit from their mentorship and guidance. You will also be offered your own matters to manage, as suited to your experience, and have the opportunity to directly correspond with clients.

What you'll need to succeed

In order to be considered for this role, you will have the following experience:

- Currently admitted to practice as a Lawyer in Australia
- Between 1-4 years of commercial litigation experience
- Hands-on experience in assisting to resolve commercial disputes
- Good communication skills

What you'll get in return

This is a chance to join a reputable firm, and work on high value and interesting commercial litigation matters. There are excellent mentorship and progression opportunities available to the successful candidate, and you will receive a competitive salary in the market.
